Kantar Cue Bids are used after opener starts the bidding with 1-of-a-suit and the next player makes a suit overcall. A cue-bid by responder shows a three-suited hand (at least four cards in each suit), a singleton or void in the enemy suit, and 8+ points. Subsequent rebids by opener and responder are natural.

The use of Kantar Cue Bids precludes the more common approach of cuebidding to show a limit raise or better for opener's suit.

Examples

2. Help-suit game try.
