A Multi-colored 2♦ opening bid shows one of the following hand types:

1. A weak two-bid in hearts
2. A weak two-bid in spades
3. Any 4-4-4-1 shape with 17-24 HCP

Opener will hold a weak-two the vast majority of the time. While the convention originated in the 1970s, it's worth mentioning that many players nowadays use Multi only with a weak-two. Assuming you play it as originally designed, here are examples of hands suitable for a Multi 2♦ opening:

Responses to 2♦

Responder's bids are as follows.

| Response | Meaning |
|---|---|
| 2♥ | Weak hand, does not promise heart support. Opener can rebid 2♠ with a weak-two in spades. |
| 2♠ | Invites game in hearts if that is opener's suit, but signoff if opener's suit is spades. Opener can rebid 3♥ (signoff), 4♥ (signoff), or Pass with spades. |
| 2NT | Strong and artificial (see below). |
| 3♣ | 7+ clubs, signoff. |
| 3♦ | 7+ diamonds, signoff. |
| 3♥ | Invites game in spades, if that is opener's suit. Opener can rebid 3♠ (signoff), 4♠ (signoff), or Pass with hearts. |
| 4♣ | Strong clubs with support for both majors. |
| 4♦ | Strong diamonds with support for both majors. |

Opener's Rebids

Opener's rebids over the artificial 2NT inquiry are as follows.

| Opener's Rebid | Meaning |
|---|---|

| | |
|---|---|
| 3♣ | Weak two-bid in hearts, good hand. |
| 3♦ | Weak two-bid in spades, good hand. |
| 3♥ | Weak two-bid in hearts, bad hand. |
| 3♠ | Weak two-bid in spades, bad hand. |
| 3NT | Strong three-suited hand (17-24 HCP) with a singleton club. |
| 4♣ | Strong three-suited hand (17-24 HCP) with a singleton diamond. |
| 4♦ | Strong three-suited hand (17-24 HCP) with a singleton heart. |
| 4♥ | Strong three-suited hand (17-24 HCP) with a singleton spade. |

If responder makes an original signoff bid, any strange-sounding rebid by opener shows the strong three-suited hand.

Origins

The Multi 2♦ is attributed to the late English expert Terence Reese circa 1970. However, as Mark Horton and Jan van Cleef note in their book "The Mysterious Multi", Reese may have been inspired by Irish player John Grummit, who created a multi-purpose convention named the "Hollywood Two Diamonds" several years earlier.
